Notice.

DIFFICULTIES arising from the nature of the following work, the publisher has been compelled to remove to Philadelphia for the better execution of his plan.

The editorial department has in consequence fallen into other hands. Mr. Allen's present engagement rendering it impossible to superintend it in another city. The friends and relations of the different signers to the Declaration of Independence are therefore requested to direct their favors to the publisher, No. 443, Market-street, Philadelphia.

PROPOSALS

By Joseph M. Sanderson,

For Publishing by Subscription,

A Biography of the Signers

OF THE

Declaration of Independence,

Accompanied with Plates.

To which will be annexed a History of the Proceedings of Congress; during the passage of the Law, and the Declaration itself, with the fac simile Engravings of the Signatures.

By JOHN SANDERSON.

TO THE PUBLIC.

When we consider the personal qualities of the statesmen whose names are affixed to the Declaration of Independence, the perilous occasion which demanded the exercise of their wisdom and deliberation, and the influence of their councils on the interests of mankind, we must acknowledge that very rarely a more imposing spectacle has been offered to the world, and we shall seek in vain in the annals of nations, for an event more worthy of commemoration, and of being cherished forever in the hearts of a grateful and generous people. The love of independence is interwoven with the frame and constitution of the human mind. It is almost the first sentiment that animates the infant's features in the cradle; and amongst all the actions and enterprises of man, none have awaked into activity a greater exertion of the virtuous energies of his nature, none has excited a greater warmth of veneration, and has more imperious claims upon our gratitude, than resistance to tyranny and political aggression.

In all republican states the first tribute of genius has been paid to the patriot or the hero who has promoted the cause of liberty and maintained the independence and dignity of man. The animated canvas and breathing marble have rescued his features from the grasp of death, and the pen of the historian has inscribed the achievements to the imperishable records of fame. It would indeed be no favorable prognostic of the perpetuity of our republican institutions to discover an insensibility to the obligations we owe the memory of the illustrious patrons of American freedom. They have raised us, by their magnanimity, from the arbitrary dominion of a foreign power, to the distinguished elevation of a sovereign and independent people; they have asserted and maintained the imprescriptible rights of humanity by the "mutual pledge of their pledge of their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honors;" and, as long as virtue holds her empire in the hearts of their successors, the example of these generous benefactors will not be lost to the world; their names will not pass away nor be forgotten, or their glorious deeds be confounded in the common and casual transaction of life.— Ingratitude is a vice that in nations, as well as individuals, indicates the last degree of degeneracy and corruption; it is a vice that implies the absence of every virtue; it was in the age of Caligula that the name of the Scipios was proscribed, that the state of Brutus brought death on its possessor.

"The glory of our ancestors is the light of posterity," and the homage of the living cannot be offered to the merits of the illustrious dead with an effectual or sterile admiration. Great and splendid actions will seldom be achieved by men who have humble or ordinary objects in prospect. It is by contemplating the life and character of those who are marked out from the multitude by their eminent qualities, that we become emulous of their virtues and their renown. The trophies of Miltiades interrupted the sleeps of Themistocles; and Theseus, bearing the exploits of Hercules, was fired with his spirit, and became the successful rival of his fame. The rude savage of the desert listens with rapture to the deeds of his ancestors, and hangs around his but the emblems of his father's valor.

More need not be said to enforce the utility of the publication we have undertaken, and which we now submit to the patronage of our fellow-citizens, with a hope, that from the liberality of their encouragement, we shall be able to present it to the public worthy of their approbation. We must depend for the illustration of many of the characters of our biography, upon the generosity of their surviving relatives and friends, to furnish us with whatever interesting materials may be in their possession; for which, with our grateful acknowledgments, we promise a copy of the entire work as a compensation.

1. The work will be published in numbers or half volumes of 200 pages, octavo, and contained in ten numbers. To the first will be prefixed an appropriate frontispiece—and the work will be commenced with the declaration of independence, with engraved fac similes of the signatures, and a compendious detail of the proceedings of congress, during the passage of the law. Each of the lives, unless when it is impracticable, will be preceded by a likeness of the person, engraved by the best artists in the United States.

II. It will be printed on fine paper, made expressly for the purpose, and delivered to subscribers at two dollars and fifty cents per number, payable on delivery.

* Subscriptions received at this office.

From the Balance.
Mr. Editor—The following stanzas are commemorative of the loss of the United States ship Wasp, commanded by captain Blakeley, supposed (at the time they were written) to have been sunk at sea, during the night, in an engagement with a British frigate—perhaps they will be new to many of your readers, and acceptable to the relatives of captain Blakeley, to the daughter of whom, I understand the Carolina states have voted an elegant service of plate, which is now nearly wrought, and will shortly be presented. Yours,
BOSTON BARD.

'Tis night! Columbia's foe is high,
And loud Columbia's thunder roar;
'Tis night! the war torch flames high,
And ocean's sounding surges pour:
But e'er the light
Of morning bright.
Shall bid the sea-bird soar,
That bloody fight
Shall close in night—
Those foemen meet no more.

'Tis night! pale Cynthia's silver beams
Are pillow'd on the mountain wave;
'Tis night! the sea-mew's piercing screams
No longer wake the slumbering brave!
For oh, they sleep,
In caverns deep,
Where whirlwinds cease to rave,
Where fairies weep,
And vigils keep
Around their hallowed grave.

'Tis morn! Columbia's sigh proclaim
That she hath heard the tale of woe;
'Tis morn! but oh, her wreaths of fame
Shall never twine o'er BLAKELEY'S brow;
Yet o'er his urn
Shall heroes mourn,
And as their tear-drops flow
Their hearts shall burn,
And ever spurn
The triumph of the foe!

BANKS.
What strange mutations farther time will bring!
Since Raids and Bankrupts mean the self

It is said of the celebrated Dr. Radcliffe, that he was not in the habit of paying his bills without much following and importunity—nor then if any chance appeared of wearying out the patience of his creditors. A paver, after long and fruitless attempts caught him just getting out of his chariot at Bloomsbury square, and set upon him. "Why, you rascal," said the doctor, "do you pretend to be paid for such a piece of work? Why you spoiled my pavement, and then covered it over with earth to hide your bad work." "Doctor," said the paver, "mine is not the only piece of bad work that the earth hides." "You dog," said the doctor, "you are a wit are you? well, you must be poor, come in." The man was paid.

BON MOT.
An anecdote is related of Mr. Proger, of Wermee, in Monmouthshire, which exhibits the pride of ancestry in a striking point of view. The house which had lately been repaired for the tenant, was in such a state of dilapidation, that the father of the last proprietor, Mr. Proger, was in danger of perishing under the ruins of the ancient mansion, which he venerated even in decay. A stranger, whom he accidentally met at the foot of the Skyridd, made various enquiries respecting the country, the prospect, and the neighboring houses; and, among others, asked, "Whose is this antique mansion before us?" "That, sir, is Wermee, a very ancient house; for out of it came the earls of Pembroke of the first line, and the earls of Pembroke of the second line; the lords Herbert of Colbrook, Rumney, Caerdiff, and York; the Morgans of Acton; the earls of Hunsdon; the Jones of Trewyn and Llanarth; and all the Powells. Out of this house also, by the female line, came the dukes of Beaufort." "And pray, sir, who lives there now?" "I do sir." Then pardon me, and accept a piece of advice: come out of it yourself, or it will tumble and crush you."

A London punster says that while the capital of Spain is Madrid—the mob of England have made Hunt their grand marshal, and invested him with a baton made of Fustick.

A penitent sinner advertises in a N. York paper that his bad habits had brought him almost to supplication!

DISTRAST.
Too great a distrust of one's self, produces a base fear; which, depriving our minds of their liberty and assurance, makes our reasoning weak, our words trembling, and our actions faint.

ALEXANDRIA:
FRIDAY MORNING, November 19.

The people of the territory of Michigan have determined to petition Congress to indemnify them for losses sustained under the breach of the capitulation entered into by Hull and Brock, the American and British generals, on the 16th of August, 1812; and also for losses sustained by them in consequence of quartering the American troops, during the war. The good people of Michigan are rather tardy in preferring their claims; not that on that account, however, if the claims be just, they ought to be rejected.

The mortality in the city of New-Orleans, during the late season, has been very great. An extract of a letter, published in the Lexington Monitor, states that, according to the report given the mayor, by the sextons, upwards of 1200 bodies have been deposited in the grave yards during the last sixty days. This is said to be three times the number that were buried in the same time in 1817.

Extract of a letter from Copenhagen, dated 19th Sept. to a gentleman in Washington. "Business continues miserably dull; no Americans arrive, and it is too late to look for any more this season. Only 44 have passed the Sound this year. The Jews have been of late very severely handled in many parts of Germany; about 14 days ago they were attacked in this city by the mob, and most of the windows of their houses broken, repaired, and broken again, &c. The military were called out, and have been ever since doing duty in different parts of the town, to keep order: many of the rioters have been arrested, and some are condemned to the house of correction, hard labor, &c. for 1, 2 and 3 years. Messrs. Meyer and Trier's house was very severely handled. It has caused considerable confusion, and some think it is not yet all over, although there has been no rioting during the last five or six days."

* Jew bankers of immense wealth.

The President and Directors of the Conococheague Bank (of Maryland) have called a meeting of the stockholders, to be held on the 23d December next, in order to determine whether said institution shall be continued or not. They view the present situation of the bank as perfectly safe and solvent.

From the Savannah Republican, Nov. 5.
ROBBERY OF THE SAVANNAH POST-OFFICE.

Mr. Fell—Permit me, through the medium of your paper, to do justice to my feelings, in snatching from suspicion and censure the character of those, whose situation and opportunity place them beyond the pale of justice, in case a breach of trust, or want of honor, was the only reason why their character and integrity were for a moment sullied with the breath of suspicion. During the two last months, the post-office has been robbed at sundry times of considerable sums of money. On the night of Saturday, the 20th ult. being the last time it was entered, between 250 and 300 dollars were taken away, from the circumstance of these frequent robberies being effected without any trouble on the part of the thieves, as no doors or windows were forced or broken, suspicions were entertained unfavorable to the known characters of those engaged as assistants, performing the duties of the office; and it was not until the morning of Tuesday last, that, by the vigilance of Mr. Joseph King, my principal assistant, that the thieves were detected, and lodged in prison—I was enabled to give any certain character or coloring to the transaction.

I have now, therefore, only to state, that the robberies above-mentioned were committed by a negro fellow of the name of Ben, in confederacy with one or two others of a lighter complexion, unconnected with the office, by whose agency, it is believed, the false or skeleton keys were produced, by which an entrance was effected. Two hundred and thirty dollars of the money have been given up by the negro Ben, as also a complete development of every thing connected with the transaction. A quantity of clothing was found in his trunk, and nothing saves the persons of his accomplices, no less guilty, but the invalidity of his, the prisoner's oath. In laying this statement before the public, I cannot but express feelings of regret that any of the gentlemen in my employ should for a moment have been implicated, or suspected of what they have never, to my knowledge, been found guilty of—a dishonorable act.

With great respect, yours,
PHILIP BOX, P. M.

From the Herkimer American, Nov. 11.
DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.

On Saturday evening last, two very promising children of Valentine Gill, Esq. of this village, one a boy, 8 years old, the other an only daughter, aged 4 years, were found drowned, in a rain water cistern, near the door of their parent's dwelling. They had been absent but a short time before they were discovered, lifeless—the female floating upon the water which was more than five feet deep in the cistern. Two physicians were immediately called in, and unremitted exertions were continued for an hour or more to resuscitate the lifeless bodies in vain.

Yesterday as several carpenters were engaged in repairing the roof of a three story house in Devonshire street, a truck in attempting to pass between the house and a tinware-man's cart which stood in the street, struck one of the props of the scaffold on which the workmen were supported, and threw it down. A part of the scaffold immediately fell, and with it three of the workmen. One of them saved himself by clinging to the spout, in such manner as to receive no material injury. The two others, a son and an apprentice of Mr. Goddard, the carpenter employed in repairing the house, fell directly to the ground, and were very severely bruised—one of them, the son of Mr. Goddard, it is feared fatally.

We are much gratified to perceive, by the advertisement of the gentlemen composing the committee on that subject, that a new prison is to be built, and upon a correct plan. We find that their proposals provide for wells, baths, drains, sewers, and every thing that can conduce to the "Heath and Security of the prisoners." Every friend to humanity will feel himself much indebted to these gentlemen. The situation of our prisons heretofore has indeed been disgraced to a "Christian people."

Nashville (Tn.) Nov. 1.

On Thursday evening last was committed to the jail of this city, a white woman and a negroman, charged with committing a murder of the most horrid kind. The circumstances, as gathered from report, are:—A man, an overseer for a gentleman in this country, some time ago, became suspicious that one of the negroes under his order (the fellow now committed) was intimate with his wife; and perhaps said something to the woman, or did something to the negro. About three weeks ago the overseer disappeared, and nothing could be heard of him, until the neighbors becoming suspicious that he had been made away with apprehended the fellow, who confessed that the overseer's wife had employed him to murder her husband—that at the time appointed for the deed, she had met and conducted him to the bed where her husband lay asleep—that the murder was committed with an axe, and the body secreted in a sink hole. It has since been discovered, and the wife and negro paramour are committed for trial.

DISEASE AMONG HORSES AND CATTLE.

"A dreadful disease (says a Tennessee paper) has lately made its appearance among horses and cattle. It effects the tongue in a most singular manner, causing it to become almost entirely raw. The editor has seen several cases of this disease, and has had two valuable horses affected by it: his method of cure is to make a strong decoction of briar root, parsimon bark, white oak bark and sassafras bark: add to which, after being well boiled, copperas, salt petre alum, assafoetida, make it pretty strong; then with a swab wash the tongue, rub it pretty hard, 4 or 6 times a day—bleeding is also good, and drenching with a tea made of spice wood, poplar bark, and sassafras, adding a little salt-petre—this is a pretty certain cure. We have been told that other species of animals are subject to take it, such as deer, hogs, &c."

LAW INTELLIGENCE.

Wolcott Adms. vs. Van Santvoord.
This cause involved a question, which has for a long time perplexed the courts in England; and on which not only professional gentlemen but the mercantile community of this country have been much divided. It was decided at the late October term of the supreme court of this state, and the decision is to the following effect. That in actions on notes or bills payable at a particular place, as against the maker of the note or the acceptor of the bill, it is not necessary for the plaintiff to allege or prove a presentment of the note or bill for payment, at the time and place specified; but that the non-existence of the fact of presentment is matter of defence only—to be available when the defendant shews that he was ready at the day and place to pay.

From the York, (Pa.) Gazette.

In the court of common pleas of York Cy. a case was decided the week before last, which from the bearing it will have on many similar cases that probably exist in this country, requires that it should be generally known. Daniel Treichler, when speculation was at its acme, bought 72 acres of land, for which he was to pay $20000. For the payment of this sum or the greater part, he gave his bond to Jacob Bower, of whom the land was bought. After being in possession of the land, Treichler gave judgments on the property.

Hence arose the suit, in which the holder of the bond on the original purchase and the judgment creditors of Treichler were joined in issue. The property was sold by the late sheriff for 4,800 a sum not much more than one fifth the original consideration money. After a minute and laborious discussion, the jury retired and came back with a verdict in favor of the original Vendor. By this decision the Vendor of real estate, by taking bonds from the Vendee, unless he takes collateral security, by which the intention will be either express or implied, that he releases the estates sold, has a lien on the property, to the exclusion of all subsequent judgment creditors.

The proceedings of the court of common pleas have by a writ of error, been taken up to the supreme court, where from the diversity of opinion on the subject it is uncertain whether the decision will be affirmed or reversed.

LATEST FROM BUENOS AYRES.

Extract of a letter from Messrs. Lynch, Zimmerman & Co. of Buenos Ayres, to their correspondent in New York, received per the Buenos Ayrean government brig Independencia, arrived at Baltimore, in the remarkably short passage of 43 days.

"Buenos Ayres, Sept. 18, 1819.

"The contradictory rumors which still agitate the public mind render every thing relating to business so unsettled, that any report on the state of the market would be vain. While some arrivals from the south of Europe, and private letters from Spain and Gibraltar, represent all the energy of that kingdom bent on a powerful invasion of these provinces; others, again, represent Spain on the brink of intestine convulsions and ruin. There is even a private correspondence which speaks with confidence of the success of the liberal party over the minions of Ferdinand, and that their first step would be to make overtures of conciliation to the American provinces.

"In this conflicting crisis our government has adopted such measures as indicate a disposition to be prepared for the worst. All the male population, in town and country, from 18 to 60 years of age are enrolled, slaves included, and not even exempting foreigners, who were at least given to understand that, unless they joined in the defence of the country, they must quit it, in a certain period. A commission is also appointed to digest and carry into execution a plan of transporting all the women, children and aged, to the interior cities.

"The old Spaniards were sent under surveillance, and heavy contributions have been exacted from them. Many of them have escaped from the country, and others are ruined by executions. It will not appear strange if, during the execution of this system, the whole community should suffer, and become confused and intimidated. But, at the very moment when this system is in operation, we see indications of a determination in our government to possess, with uncommon energy, in the warfare against the Royalists of Peru. This latter circumstance convinces many people that our government apprehends no danger from the side of Old Spain.

"All prospects of an immediate compromise with Artigas, are now at an end."

With regard to the robbery of the Macedonian, of the port of Boston, by Lord Cochran, the Boston Yankee has the following remarks:—

It was reserved to Lord Cochran to commit the first great and daring outrage on our flag. Every where we go unmolested, except when we come in contact with him.

Do our vessels of war fall in his way? Salutes, and bows, and scrapings are imperiously demanded by the noble Lord.

Does our money come within his grasp.—He seizes it with all the avidity of a shameless plunderer.

The brig Macedonian, of Boston, quitted Callao as required by the paper blockade of Lord Cochran. She had entered the port, and sold her cargo, previous to that blockade, and had committed no violation of it.

But, forsooth, my Lord wanted money, and 142,000 Spanish milled dollars, the proceeds of the cargo of the Macedonian, were going from Callao to Guernsey, Guernsey being the port designated by Cochran as the proper port for the Macedonian to land at.

My Lord wanted the money, and sans ceremony he takes it. It may not be quite so easy for the noble Lord to get out of the scrape, when our vessels of war show themselves in force, in the south seas.

ITEMS OF NEWS.

Kentucky commissioners have run a new state boundary line, by which they go 17 miles to the state of Tennessee, at the Mississippi, and have advanced into the state of Missouri so as to claim 7000 acres of land.

It is stated in a Philadelphia paper of November 5, that wool is so scarce in that market, that a valuable branch of their manufactures is at a stand, for the want of the article coming at a fair price.

The Great Swamp, about 10 miles west of Springfield, N. J. which caught fire about 4 weeks since, is still burning, and about 3,000 acres of timber have been destroyed.

A quarry of colored marble, of great beauty, has very recently been discovered in Cherry Valley, Otsego county, N. Y. It is of a light brown, interspersed occasionally with white spots, indicative, as it would appear of minute organic remains. It receives a beautiful polish.

THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.

The late mission to the Sandwich Islands having excited a deep interest in the public mind, we have endeavored to collect, from the few sources within our reach, some information respecting them, which may be gratifying to our readers. These islands, as it is well known, were discovered by Capt. Cook. They are eleven in number, extending in latitude from 18 deg. 54 min. to 22 deg. 15 min. N. and in longitude from 150 degrees 54 min. to 140 deg. 26 min. W. The climate nearly resembles that of the West-India Islands, in the same latitude, except that it is free from their terrible winds and hurricanes, and has more rain, especially in the inland parts. The taro root, bread-fruit, sugar-cane, and a vegetable shaped like a yam, are an excellent substitute for sugar, among the vegetable productions of these islands. There is also an abundance of hogs, and a species of dogs, which they use for food; and wild cattle are plenty, which the inhabitants have not tamed, but kill as they have need of them. These with a great variety of fish furnish all that is necessary for their support. In their persons, language, customs, and manners, the inhabitants of the Sandwich Islands very much resemble those of New-Zealand. They live together in villages, containing from 1 to 200 houses, built pretty close together, without order, and having a winding path between them. The making of canoes, mats, &c. forms the occupation of the men, while the women are employed in manufacturing cloth. They make an abundance of salt, and of good quality. The accounts respecting their population are very various; some of the youth who have been in this country, fix it at 250,000, while others say it equals 4 or 500,000. The government is monarchical and hereditary. Tamahamaah is the present king of Owhyhee, and of all the other islands with the exception of Attooi and Wahoo; the former of which is under the immediate government of Tamoree, who it is also said to have a claim to the latter—though some of the natives tell us that he is in fact a subordinate sovereign, and derives his authority from Tamahamaah, of whom he is the nephew. It is his son George Tamoree, who has sailed with our missionaries, and will doubtless soon, from all that we can learn, be recognized by his father as the heir to his throne. Tamahamaah is a very old man; some say that he is upwards of seventy, and others of ninety years of age—still he possesses great energy and maintains an irresistible authority over his subjects. He rides in his coach, has a princely establishment, and has begun to collect various European implements of war for the defence of his kingdom. A native of Owhyhee, who has lately arrived in this country, says that after the present king's death, there will probably be two rival heirs to the throne, Ohehelehe, son of Tamahamaah, and his nephew Koahkraah. But we cannot vouch for the truth of this statement.

A SNUG PARTY.

The friends of Mr. Astley, the unsuccessful candidate at the late Will Election, gave a dinner at Salisbury on Friday last, to the poor of that city, friends to their cause, which was held on a green, at the back of the house of J. Morris, Esq. Two thousand two hundred persons sat down to a plentiful dinner of most excellent roast and boiled beef, vegetables of all descriptions, and a good store of plumb-pudding. Beside every plate stood a two penny loaf. On the table were placed a thousand new tin cups (made for the occasion) indented with "Astley for ever," and which were given to the people. To every person was allotted a quart of ale and a quart of stingo. The booth which extended nearly round the table, was in length 800 feet; the width was sufficient to admit of two rows of tables, four rows of persons, and ample space for those who were desirous of witnessing the gratifying scene to view it with comfort. Mr. Alderman Goddard presided, and a great number of highly respectable characters were present. The whole was conducted with the utmost order and regularity.

ADVICE TO LAWYERS—NOT TO BUY TOO MANY BOOKS.

Lord Mansfield has said, that "the great increase of the number of law books did not increase the quantity of the necessary reading, as the new publications frequently made the reading of the older books unnecessary." This he illustrates by showing that "since Blackstone's Commentaries, no one thought of reading Wood's Institutes, or Finch's Law, which, till then, were the first books put into the hands of students." "Few persons, too," he observed, "when he was young, would confess they had not read, at least a considerable part of the but now, few would prefer an occasional re-very particular cases." recur to the interesting that "the progress of in and juridical science, d last centuries, though l to the common eye, is n ful than that of the m physical sciences." T proceeds to illustrate by since the reign of Qu nearly the whole system been created, and that tracts and maritime now arrived to such per that time wholly unknow imperfectly understood. of Bailments was, as he ses it, "struck out, at a heat, by Lord Holt." T principles of the law of change and promissio younger than the days of Queen Anne;" and the Fern, Todd, Chitty, Ne berts, have laid upon the antiquary the five hump the Year Books, Rolle, herbert, &c.

considerable part of the Year-Books; but now, few would pretend to more than an occasional recourse to them in very particular cases." Let us also recur to the interesting facts given us by Judge Story and others. He says, that "the progress of moral, political, and juridical science, during the two last centuries, though less perceptible to the common eye, is not less wonderful than that of the mathematical and physical sciences." This remark he proceeds to illustrate by showing that since the reign of Queen Elizabeth, nearly the whole system of equity has been created, and that commercial contracts and maritime law, which have now arrived to such perfection, were at that time wholly unknown, or but very imperfectly understood. The doctrine of Bailments was, as he happily expresses it, "struck out, at almost a single heat, by Lord Holt." The most useful principles of the law of bills of exchange and promissory notes are younger than the days of Swift's "good Queen Anne;" and the treatises of Fern, Todd, Chitty, Newland and Roberts, have laid upon the shelves of the antiquary the five hundred volumes of the Year Books, Rolle, Brooke, Fitzherbert, &c.

COW SWALLOWING A SPOON.
 A gardener in the neighborhood of Dumfries, Scotland, lately sold a cow to a butcher in that town, which was killed. In the second stomach of the animal was found an old-fashioned silver spoon, in a perfect state of preservation. This spoon was soon recognized by the owner, who had missed it nearly a twelvemonth ago, and who certainly never dreamed that the pilferer upon whom she had bestowed so many maledictions, was a four-footed animal.

Extracts from a Law
 Of the Corporation to provide for the speedy extinguishment of Fire, &c.
 Sec 1. That every proprietor of any dwelling house, or store house within the limits of the corporation, shall, at his or her own expense, provide as many fire buckets, made of good and suitable leather, and containing at least two and a half gallons, as shall be equal in number to the stories in such house. Provided, That no proprietor shall, in any case be compelled to provide more than three buckets for one house. Every proprietor who shall neglect to procure the proper number of buckets in the manner herein directed, shall forfeit and pay one dollar per month for each bucket he shall so neglect to procure. The proprietors of all dwelling houses and store houses which shall hereafter be erected within the corporation, shall furnish the same with buckets in the manner before prescribed, within two months after such houses shall be occupied; or failing to do so, shall be subject to the penalties before mentioned.
 2. Where the proprietor of any dwelling house or store house residing out of the limits of the corporation, shall neglect to comply with the requisitions of this act, the occupier of such house shall within two months after coming to the possession thereof, procure the necessary buckets; and failing to provide the same, shall be subject to the like penalties as are in such case imposed on the proprietor.
 5. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of police, once in six months at least, to visit the houses within the limits of the corporation to examine and take an account of the buckets belonging to such houses, and to report to the mayor the names of all persons who shall neglect to provide and keep the same, according to the requisitions of this act. pa. 31&32. Public Sale.
 BY virtue of a deed of trust, from Daniel M'Pherson and wife to me, under date of the 30th of May, 1816, and for the purposes therein prescribed, I shall sell at public auction, on the premises, on FRIDAY, the 10th of December next, a tract of land, in the county of Fairfax, known by the name of lying on the stage or Colchester road, distant about 6 miles from Alexandria, and containing 1484 acres, more or less—reserving, however, to George Triplett his right to one moiety of the dwelling house and yard. This land has been very considerably improved by judicious cultivation, and there are now growing crops of small grain upon it.
 Also, one other tract, being an equal undivided moiety of a tract of land in the said county, contiguous to the foregoing, and supposed to contain 25 acres 2 poles.
 The terms of sale will be made known at the time and place of sale.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY on the 25th of April last, a man called NED, formerly the property of Mr. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax, and by him sold to Hopburn & Dundas. He had on when he went away an old country blue and white cloth coat, and kersey trousers—his right hand in a sling, in consequence of the kick of a horse. Ned is a stupid looking fellow, and hesitates very much when he speaks. I will give fifty dollars if apprehended in the District, or the above reward for apprehending him out of the District, so that I get him again.
AGNES DUNDAS.
Mount Eagle, May 19

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, on Thursday, the 11th inst. a negro man, named DICK, who sometimes calls himself Dick Douglas. He is a small man about 5 feet 6 inches high, and is not a very black man. I purchased him from the estate of Edgar McCarty, esq. Cedar Grove, Fairfax county, Va. and it is likely that he may be lurking about that neighborhood or Colchester, as he has a wife at Capt. Berry's of the latter place; or he may have gone to Loudoun county, as he has lived there in the neighborhood of Wm. McCarty and John McCarty, near Leesburg. He had on and took with him an old grey cloth coat and a brown coat of drab colored domestic cloth. He is much addicted to liquor, and is a coarse shoemaker. I will give 20 dollars if taken in the District of Columbia. Thirty dollars if taken in Fairfax county, and the above reward if apprehended in any other place, and secured so that I get him again; and reasonable charges if brought home.
WM. B. STUART.
November 16

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber living in King George's county Va. on Monday the 22nd March, a yellow man named about 22 years of age, his tone teeth wide apart, and cannot speak very quick—had on Virginia cloth clothes and carried off a shaggy great coat, he has a father named Peter Hall, who lives with the widow Morgan, at Oak Hill, Fauquier Co. and his grandfather, old Frederick Hall, is supposed to be living at Mr. Terrett's near Alexandria, and it is likely he may be lurking about there. I will give the above reward for apprehending and securing said fellow so that I get him again, and reasonable charges if brought home.
JAMES,

J. H. WASHINGTON.

Masters of vessels and others are forewarned against harboring or carrying off said fellow.
June 14

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living near Aldie, Loudoun county, Virginia, on the night of the 11th inst. a negro man, who calls his name NED BURGESS. He is a shrewd, intelligent negro, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high; 30 years of age, well made, active and polite. Had on when he went away, a sky colored coat, and corded pantaloons. His right eye sore, apparently occasioned by a blow, the blood having settled around it. His ears have been pierced, and had green silk in them when he went away. It is expected he is now lurking about Fairfax court-house and Aldie. The above Ned Burgess ran away on the night of the 25th of last Aug. and was caught on the 11th inst. on the night of which he effected his elopement by drawing the staple to which he was fastened by the handle of a pan, while there was no person in the kitchen but himself. He was caught on the 11th inst. a few miles below Aldie, but I think it improbable that he has gone near the same place again. I will give 100 dollars if he is taken out of the county, and fifty if taken in the county, and secured so that I get him again, and all reasonable charges if brought home.
GEO. GULICK.
P. S. It is supposed that the said negro has obtained papers of freedom, or a free pass, or something of the kind.
G. G.
November 17

100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the surname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bearskin overcoat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse clothing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.
I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

Burr Mill Stone Manufactory.

THE subscriber wishes to inform his friends and the public, that he has opened his Burr Mill Stone Manufactory, at the upper end of King-street, (opposite the Blacksmith and Farrier's shop, in the town of Alexandria,) where he will supply millers with French Burrs, of any size, at the shortest notice; and will warrant them equal, if not superior, to any in the United States.—If millers will order their Wheat Burrs before they are built, he will build them in a manner, as he can prove to the satisfaction of any person, that they will run, without stop or fail, for 100 years; & if not bespoke, from 90 to 100.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling.

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices, in each case; and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or dissatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly; had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. Have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. WM.
